LEADERSHIP CORNER

Save the date for the next district administrators chat! Join us on Tuesday, October 15, 2024, 7-8 p.m. ET for the chat: An Administrator's Checklist for the Year. We'll review the administrators' responsibilities for the year and a timeline for helping clubs start the year strong.

TIPS FOR PARTNERING WITH KIWANIS

Collaboration with your sponsoring Kiwanis club can make service more impactful and fun — for Kiwanians and Aktion Club members alike. Whether Kiwanis members volunteer during Aktion Club service activities or vice versa, it's a win-win because you have more volunteers on hand to help. Use these tips to help with successful collaborations!

REACH OUT TO OTHER K FAMILY CLUBS

Many Aktion Clubs participate in service projects with their sponsoring Kiwanis clubs. Of course, clubs from the other Kiwanis Service Leadership Programs offer opportunities to connect with young people of various ages — all of whom share a love of service. See some tips for reaching out with a plan to partner.

WELCOME BACK, TACACHALE AKTION CLUB

With gratitude to its sponsoring club — the Kiwanis Club of Gainesville, Florida, U.S. — the Tacachale Aktion Club began meeting in person again this year. The club has served the people in its community for over 25 years. Its projects include giving suncatchers to help people welcome spring, celebrating patriotism and making necklaces to distribute for the county's Juneteenth celebration.

ENTRIES AND REPORT DEADLINE

Don't miss the deadline to submit your club's entries (and annual achievement report) for 2023-24 awards and contests: Sunday, September 15, by 11:59 p.m. ET. To find rules, contest themes and links to all online forms, visit the awards and recognition webpage and get started!
